Dolly Parton and Kenny Rogers Tribute Featuring Sherry Gordon & Mark Hinds

Wednesday, January 10, 2024

$25 for RCSC Members/Cardholders; $30 Non-Cardholder Guest

Sherry Gordon's career began at age four as a singer and ventriloquist in Phoenix before heading to Las Vegas where she performed as back-up singer for many popular groups in addition to forming her own band, "In the Mood." Over the years, friends and acquaintances constantly commented on her resemblance to Dolly Parton. As an avid fan of the country star, Sherry began to work on a full-blown impression. She now dazzles audiences with her tremendous tribute to Dolly Parton – her dream becoming a reality. Mark Hinds has been performing a tribute to Kenny Rogers for many decades, traveling the over the world and amazing audiences wherever he goes. Mark has been on stage twice with Kenny Rogers, including at the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville, where the two stood side-by-side singing one of Kenny's biggest hits, "The Gambler." Today Sherry and Mark perform both individually and together, creating the true-to-life look and sound of these two legendary country artists...Dolly Parton and Kenny Rogers!
